

Register for the 2nd Annual

Ann M. Jones Institute for Innovation in Nursing Education

“Nurses Partnering to Build and Lead a Culture of Health in Minnesota”

COME, LISTEN AND REACT TO SEVERAL HOT ISSUES ON THE CUSP OF IMPACTING THE FUTURE OF NURSING PRACTICE

- Triple Aim and what it means to healthcare across all settings —
- Building today a Culture of Health Framework for tomorrow's Education and Practice —
- Transitioning students from Education to Professional Practice —
- Participate and Experience 2 Innovation Express breakout sessions —

Featured Presentations:

- The Triple Aim in Healthcare
- A Culture of Health Framework for Education and Practice
- A Public Health Nurse Residency Program: Pilot Project
- Transitioning from Education to Professional Practice: A Model to Improve Practice Readiness
- Impact of Telehealth Nursing on Practice and the Health of Minnesotans
- Panel Discussion by Expert Opinion Leaders in Nursing

This program is appropriate for nurse leaders and decision makers from nursing education and all service delivery settings across the healthcare continuum who want to work together to formulate and implement innovative strategies.

REGISTER NOW

11.10.2016

Anoka-Ramsey
Community College
Coon Rapids Campus

Check in begins at 7:30am, program starts at 8:30am, register and learn more at:
http://maneMN.org/AMJ_2016
Come prepared to be engaged and active participants throughout the day!

For questions please contact:

Faye Uppman at faye.uppman@metrostate.edu or Liz Sether at esether@leadingagemn.org